We only collect and use pupils' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where we need to comply with a legal obligation or we need it to perform an official task in the public interest. We may also use a data subject's information to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Less commonly, we may also process pupils' personal data in situations where we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way.

Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data. However we use the data and meet the legal requirements as set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Education Act 1996
- Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

4 WHAT WE DO WITH IT

We do not share information about our pupils/parents with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

- Conducting research or analysis.
- Producing statistics.
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NDP is maintained. Asfordby Hill Primary School will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so.
